

FIRST TERM ENGLISH EXAM

Corrected & Standardized Layout Version

TEXT: JOANNE KATHLEEN ROWLING

Joanne Kathleen Rowling was born in Chipping Sodbury in 1965. She spent her childhood near Bristol. Two of the children she played with were called Potter, a name she liked very much. At school, she wasn't good at sport, but she was very imaginative and very interested in languages and she wrote her first story when she was five or six years old.

After school, she studied French at Exeter University and spent one year in Paris. In 1992, she went to Portugal to teach English. Her marriage to a Portuguese TV journalist ended in divorce and she returned to Britain with her daughter. They settled in Edinburgh. She was out of work and she spent her time writing.

The idea of telling the story of a boy who was a wizard came to her in 1990. She continued working on the story for several years and finished her novel when she was in Edinburgh. Then, she sent it to many publishers who rejected it. Finally in 1996, Bloomsbury Children's Book bought her novel Harry Potter and immediately became a best-seller. Writing is now J. K. Rowling's full-time job.
