Model Paragraph / Production Example:

As teenagers, many of us prefer fast food to homemade food because it is very delicious, cheap, and saves a lot of time. However, fast food has severe disadvantages: it is unhealthy, not balanced, too fatty, and can lead to serious health issues like obesity and sicknesses. On the other hand, homemade food prepared with fresh fruit and vegetables gives us real energy and keeps us healthy. Therefore, we should avoid eating too much fast food and enjoy balanced, nutritious meals at home.
