On National Martyr's Day, we proudly honor the memory and bravery of our heroes who sacrificed their lives for Algeria's freedom. One of the most impressive monuments celebrating their sacrifice is the Martyr's Memorial, locally known as Maqam Echahid, located in Algiers, Algeria.

This iconic landmark was designed by the Polish sculptor Marian Konieczny along with Algerian painter Bachir Yelles. Its construction lasted from November 15, 1981 to July 5, 1982. Built from durable reinforced concrete, this grand structure stands 92 metres high in the shape of three giant palm leaves shielding an eternal flame.

Maqam Echahid was officially inaugurated on the 20th anniversary of Algeria's independence.
